Partnering with MCCI Iwakuni

Marine Corps Community Services Iwakuni (MCCI) enhances the quality of life, supports readiness, and promotes the well-being of Marines, Sailors, Families, DoD Civilians, and Contractors.

MCCI contributes to the Marine Corps strength and readiness by providing first-choice recreation programs and support services that reduce stress, build skills and self-confidence while fostering a strong esprit de corps.

Through the Commercial Sponsorship and Advertising Program (CS&AP), MCCI offers a unique opportunity to directly reach over 12,000 Marines, Sailors, Family Members, DoD Civilians, Contractors, and Local Nationals.

When you partner with MCCI, you will directly support exceptional programs for military members and their families.

Our partnership can be customized with numerous interactive and creative opportunities to reach your marketing goals and cross-promote your business with MCASI community activities and lifestyles.

Sponsorship is a great method to launch new products and establish brand preference among the military community.

Through partnership we provide you direct access to the military market and brand exposure to maximize your investment.

Sponsorship may be in the form of cash, products, services, or a combination of all three.

A vibrant outdoor scene at a public event. In the foreground, a woman with short dark hair, wearing a light pink bucket hat and a dark blue long-sleeved shirt, is laughing heartily with her mouth wide open. She is leaning her arms on a bright green plastic safety barrier. To her right, another person's arm is visible, wearing a silver wristwatch and holding a green object. In the background, a diverse crowd of people is gathered, some wearing hats and holding up smartphones to take photos. The scene is set against a clear blue sky with distant mountains visible on the horizon.

Friendship Day

MCAS Iwakuni's Signature Event: Friendship Day

Friendship Day is the largest single-day airshow in the Asia-Pacific region and attracts over 150,000 attendees.

The event is a joint effort between Marine Corps Air Station Iwakuni (MCASI) and the Japan Maritime Self-Defense Force (JMSDF) and has become a beloved tradition for locals and visitors alike.

Headlined by the Blue Impulse, the JMSDF equivalent to the U.S. Navy Blue Angels, you can expect to see a thrilling display of civilian and military aerial performances, static displays, a plethora of food and novelty vendors, and more!

Marketing opportunities are available through corporate sponsorship, flight-line exhibits, and hospitality chalets. These opportunities offer a cost-effective vehicle to promote your products and services while increasing the public's awareness of your partnership with our military community.

Airshows attract a spectator base unlike that at any other motor sports event. The average spectator spends more than four hours on the airshow grounds watching, talking, listening, and buying.
